

RULES TO OBTAIN A CIVIL UNION IN TAZEVELL COUNTY

1. The civil union must take place in the SAME County in which the license is issued. Couples, who wish to have a civil union performed in Tazewell County must apply for their license in the Tazewell County Clerk's office, 11 S. 4th Street, McKenzie Building, Suite 203, Pekin, Illinois between the hours of 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.
2. The legal age for partners to obtain a civil union without parental consent is 18. Consent of BOTH parents is required for applicants who are 16 or 17 years of age. No one under the age of 16 can apply for a license in the State of Illinois. Birth certificates are required for proof of age for applicants who are under the age of 18 and driver's license or a State identification card for applicants who 18 years of age or older.
3. Effective September 11, 1989, blood tests are no longer required in the State of Illinois to acquire a civil union.
4. The license becomes effective the day after it is issued and is effective for sixty (60) days.
5. The cost of a civil union is $90.00. This fee includes a certified copy of their civil union to be mailed to them once the County Clerk's office receives the license from the Officiant.
6. The license must be mailed back to the County Clerk's office by the Officiant within ten days from the date of the ceremony in the envelope provided from the County Clerk's office.
7. The couple will need to know both of their parents full birth names, their current addresses (if still living), and the states where the parents were born.
8. If there has been a previous civil union or marriage, the couple will need to know the date, county and state of the death or divorce. If this occurrence has been less than thirty (30) days, you will need to provide appropriate documentation.
