TAZEWELL COUNTY CLERK / RECORDER

JOHN C. ACKERMAN

11 SOUTH 4TH STREET / SUITE 203 & 124 / PEKIN, IL 61554

4/06/2026

On behalf of all the office staff at the Tazewell County Clerk & Recorder of Deeds Office, I am proud to present to you the 2026 Tazewell County Yearbook. This directory is an important tool in assisting our citizens with the ability to communicate with their elected officials.

The cover of this 2026 Tazewell County Yearbook highlights this year's America 250 Celebration. Our office invited the students of our county to submit artistic designs for our 2026 Primary Election "I Voted" Sticker showcasing this historic anniversary. The result was an outstanding collection of youth artwork. It was presented to the County Board for them to vote and select the Artwork Contest winners. They selected the five designs featured on the cover, all of which will be utilized for the 2026 Primary Election. We thank all the students from throughout Tazewell County that submitted designs for their outstanding work!

Last year we proudly announced the complete digitalization of all previous Tazewell County Yearbooks and their availability online to the public. We are blessed to have Tazewell County Yearbooks going back to 1911. These records provided us an invaluable historical resource of previous Tazewell County employees, civic leadership, and community milestones. Now with this digitization upgrade completed, these records are more readily available to the public, and we have increased preservation of these records by not only having the physical books themselves but also a complete digitized copy. The ability to easily search these historic records has been dramatically improved as a result as well. You can find these digitized records here: <https://gov.arcasearch.com/usiltzb/>

In conclusion, while we strive to make sure all the information contained in this directory is accurate and up-to-date, perfection is a hard standard to meet. If you find a mistake, please email the correction to our attention at CountyClerk@Tazewell-il.gov. We will continually strive to improve this directory.

Sincerely,

John C. Ackerman
Tazewell County Clerk

The History of Tazewell County

Collected by Tazewell County Clerk John C. Ackerman and the Tazewell County Genealogical & Historical Society from the 1879 History of Tazewell County written by Charles C. Chapman and from the 1949 and 1979 Tazewell County Yearbooks

Historical Dates in the Formation of Tazewell County

1825 – Peoria County created and includes all of Tazewell County. Of the first three County Commissioners elected to represent Peoria County, Nathan Dillon and William Holland reside from current Tazewell County. First meeting of new Peoria County is held March 8, 1825.

1827 – Tazewell organized January 31st. The county was named in honor of Honorable Littleton Tazewell, United States Senator (1824-1832) and Governor of the State of Virginia (1834-1836). First meeting of the Tazewell County Government is held on April 10th, 1827, at William Orendorff's homestead in Hopedale. Next two meetings of Tazewell County Government in 1827 take place at Ephraim Stout's homestead in Stout's Grove before moving to the new Tazewell County Seat in Mackinaw.

1850 – Tazewell County Seat moved from Tremont to Pekin. First Tazewell County Courthouse in Pekin opens on November 11th, 1850.

1916 – Current Tazewell County Courthouse in Pekin opens on June 21st, 1916.

The County of Tazewell was formed from Peoria County and established January 31, 1827. It is bounded by Woodford County on the north, by Logan County and Mason County on the south, by Woodford County and McLean County on the east, and by Mason County and the Illinois River on the west. The county is from eighteen to thirty miles long, north and south, and twenty-four wide from east to west, and divided into nineteen organized townships.

The original name proposed by the State Legislature was Mackinaw County, but was changed to Tazewell County in honor of United States Senator (1824-1832) and Governor of Virginia (1834-1836) Littleton Tazewell, at the request of prominent Pekin businessman Gideon Henkel Rupert, by the Illinois Senate before passage on January 31st, 1827. The only other Tazewell County in the United States, which is in Virginia, is named after Littleton Tazewell's father, Henry Tazewell, who was also a United States Senator from Virginia (1794-1795). The towns of Tazewell, Virginia and Tazewell, Tennessee, are also named after Henry Tazewell.

The first settlement in this county by non-Native Americans had been an old French settlement at or near Creve Coeur in 1680. In the fall of 1823 Nathan Dillon and family, who were Quakers, came to this county from Guilford County, North Carolina, and made the first permanent settlement near the Mackinaw River, on what was known as Tremont Prairie, he being the first practical farmer that settled in this county. He was followed by several brothers in the spring of 1824. George and Isham Wright settled the same year at Hittle's Grove. William Davis came with Nathan Dillon in 1823 and settled with his family in Elm Grove Township in 1824. Amasa and Matthew Stout came to Stout's Grove in 1824. Daniel Seward, Benjamin Briggs, Alexander McKnight, and James Scott settled in Plum Grove in 1824. Jesse, Absalom, and Jacob Funk along with Jacob Wilson, Jacob Hepperly, Morgan Buckingham, Horace Crocker, Abraham Brown, and Jefferson Huscham settled on the river bottom above and opposite Fort Clarke. Isaac Perkins, Hugh Woodrow, William Woodrow, Samuel Woodrow, John Summers, Jacob and Jonathan Tharp, Peter Scott and others, came into Sand Prairie in 1824. In the spring of 1825, William Holland settled at or near the town of Washington, and was appointed by the government a sort of Indian agent and gunsmith for the Indians in this region of the country. He was soon followed by William Blanchard, L. Andress, Elias Avery, and John Parker, all settling near Washington in 1826. Around the time of settlement of Washington by William Holland, Thomas Camlin established a homestead on the Farm Creek three miles east of Peoria in Fond du Lac Township.

The first record of any legal proceedings in Tazewell County is that of a "special term of the County Commissioners' Court, held at the house of William Orendorff, in the County of Tazewell and State of Illinois, on the 10th day of April, 1827. Present, James Lotta, Benjamin Briggs, and George Hittle." It was ordained by the Court that Mordecai Mobley be appointed the first Tazewell County Clerk, and that "he give bonds as the law directs and present the same for approval at the next County Commissioners' Court. Whereupon the said Mordecai Mobley took and subscribed the requisite oath."

In the old county records we found this entry, dated April 26th, 1827: "Ordered, that W.H. Hodge be appointed to survey and lay off the town of Mackinaw, and that he have the same completed on or before the 20th day of May next ensuing." It was also ordered "that said survey be in conformity to a plan of said town of Mackinaw, now on file in the office of the clerk of this court" - which shows that the plan of the town had already been drawn and placed on file as the contemplated county seat; and accordingly, the county seat was established at Mackinaw in 1828. The old Mackinaw Court House was a two-story building eighteen by twenty-two feet. Judge Samuel Lockwood of Jacksonville held the first court here on the 12th day of May, 1828. Thomas Neil, of Sangamon, officiated as prosecuting attorney. At that time, and until the adoption of the new constitution in 1848, the Circuit Judges and State's Attorneys were appointed by the Governor, with the concurrence of the legislature. The Circuit Clerks were appointed by the Circuit Judges.

The Judicial Circuit at that early day embraced the counties of Morgan, Sangamon, Cass, Scott, Mason, Tazewell, Woodford, McLean, and DeWitt. Later the Judicial Circuit embraced the counties of Tazewell, Mason, Cass, and Menard. At present the Judicial Circuit is comprised of the counties of Peoria, Tazewell, Stark, Marshall, and Putnam.

The first female child born in the county was Hannah Dillon, her birth occurring August 2nd, 1824. Stephen Woodrow was the first male child born in the county. The first male deceased was a Mr. Killum, in December 1823. He left Sugar Creek (now in Logan County) to go to Peoria (then Fort Clark) and having waded the Mackinaw River at high water and the weather turning suddenly cold, he perished on the prairie not far from where he had crossed.

The first marriage that occurred after the county was organized, and the first marriage license issued, was under the following romantic circumstances: Mordecai Mobley, the first Tazewell County Clerk, happened at old Father Stout's to stay all night. Mr. Stout lived about five miles from Mackinaw. Mr. Mobley says he noticed a boy and girl around, but thought they were brother and sister. Soon the "old gentleman" called him aside and told him that "that ar boy had comin' to see his daughter for a long time", and that they wanted to get married. Mr. Mobley told him they had to get a license, and that he was the man to issue the license. Mr. Stout wanted the license immediately so Mr. Mobley told them if they would get him pen and ink and paper he would write the license. An unmarked flyleaf of an old book was found providing the paper. Mr. Mobley told them to go and catch the largest chicken they had. This was done and a large feather pulled out of its wing and a pen made of it. Now all they needed was ink. Mr. Mobley took some water and gunpowder and made some writing fluid. Thus, on an old book page, with a pen made from a chicken feather, and with ink made from water and gunpowder, the first marriage license issued in Tazewell County was written. John Stout and Fanny Stout were married on the 25h of June, 1827, by Reverend William Brown.

The first cabin built in the county was by Nathan Dillon, in Dillon Township and he moved into it without door or windows. He built a fire in one corner and tore up the clapboard roof to let the smoke escape. The first Post Office in the county was kept by Thomas Dillon in the township of Dillon in 1825. At that time the post route was from Galena to Springfield, north and south, and from Danville to Fort Clark, east and west, and the mail was carried on horseback. Absalom Dillon kept the first store in the county, first at Dillon in 1826, and also at Pekin in 1830. The first School House in the county was erected in Elm Grove Township in 1827. Samuel Bentley was the first teacher. The first steamboat to ascend the Illinois River landed at Pekin, which at the time was known as "Town Site," late in the fall of 1828. The first "tavern" license was granted by the county on the 3rd day of March, 1832, to Rufus North, Jacob Funk, and Jonas Hittle.

The first grist-mill was erected by William Eads and William Davis in 1825 in Elm Grove Township. It was generally run by four horses, and would not crack over three bushels of corn in an hour. Shortly after, another mill was erected in Circleville by Elisha Perkins. The first mill run by water was built on Farm Creek in 1827, by a man named Leak. It had one run of stones, and the bolting was done by hand. Another water mill was built in 1831 by Summers, on Lick Creek west of Groveland. The first cotton gin in the county was built by William Eads in connection with his grist-mill. Theodorus Fisher built the first woolen factory ever operated in Tazewell County in 1832 in Elm Grove Township.

The first slave emancipated in Tazewell County was a man named Morrison. He presented his certificate of freedom from his owner, William N. Burnett, and had it confirmed by the court in June of 1832.

The county continued to increase slowly in population, but without any marked improvement in agriculture, until 1834, when the colony known as the Tremont colony located their lands in an almost geographical center of the county, in an open prairie, and immediately laid out the town of Tremont, and commenced building and improving the adjoining lands with great energy and perseverance, with improved implements of all kinds, and with almost every variety of fruits and vegetables, brought from all parts of the county. Still the implements of agriculture brought from the east were poorly adapted to the cultivation of the rich prairie soil, and yet that same class of implements continued to be used until 1837-1838. In 1837, the first plow that would scour in all soils was made in the town of Tremont, the pattern having been brought from Sangamon County, where it had been in use one or two years. From 1838 they began to multiply in all parts of the state very rapidly.

The agents of the Delavan colony settled their lands in an open prairie several miles from timber, and in the spring of 1837 began improving rapidly, with the same degree of enterprise and energy as had marked the Tremont colony, three years earlier. A few years after this Haines' Illinois Harvester of Pekin, added very much to the interest and facilities of raising small grain in the country.

When the Black Hawk War broke out, in 1832, the Snell School House in Pekin was converted into a fort, to be used in case of an attack from the bands of Native Americans then roaming throughout this section of the West. It was called "Fort Doolittle" and although the fort was not attacked, the people of this vicinity were destined to experience a sad bereavement in another quarter. A company of volunteers from Pekin had thirteen of their number killed in the battle of Sycamore, among whom were Captain Adams and Major Perkins. The balance of the company saved their scalps by doing some very rapid marching to Dixon on Rock River.

The county seat of this county has been subject to some vicissitudes and changes. The first meetings took place in Hopedale in April of 1827, then in Stout's Grove in current McLean County in April and June of 1827. The meetings moved to the home of then County Clerk Mordecai Mobly for the remainder of 1827 and then to the home of County Clerk J.C. Morgan in the beginning of 1828. The first Tazewell County Courthouse was built in Mackinaw and open on May 13th, 1828. On June 1st, 1831, the Tazewell County Seat was moved to Pekin, but no Courthouse was built. On May 9th, 1836, the Tazewell County Seat was taken from Pekin and located at Tremont, where the Tremont Courthouse had already been constructed. It was again removed to Pekin in November of 1850, where it has since remained. The first Tazewell County Courthouse in Pekin was erected by a committee appointed by the legislature, consisting of Wm. S. Maus, Thomas N. Gill, James Haines, David Mark, and T.J.S. Flint. The funds for its erection were contributed almost wholly by the City of Pekin, and the cost of the building was $8,000. In June 1914 this building was torn down by Barnewolt Construction Co., at a cost of $1250 to make room for the current second Pekin Court House.

In September 1913, the Board of Supervisors of this county adopted a resolution by Supervisor C.C. Reardon of Delavan for the purpose of erecting a new Tazewell County Courthouse to replace the present Courthouse which was not adequate for the needs of this county. The cost of the new Courthouse was not to exceed the amount of $250,000. A special Election was held October 20, 1913, for this purpose carried by a majority vote. The present Tazewell County Courthouse was completed in April 1916, under the supervision of a Special Court House Building Committee consisting of Supervisors Peter Sweitzer, J.S. Nixon, C.C. Reardon, S.S. Smith, G.M. Lowry, and B.F. Quigg, who were appointed by the Board of Supervisors. Dedication of the present Tazewell County Courthouse building was made on June 21st, 1916.

A Constitutional Convention was held in 1847, which presented a new constitution for the State of Illinois. In place of the Commissioners' Court, a County Court in each county was established. This system of government lasted till a fall election in 1849, when the county voted in favor of a Township government format. Under this new Township government format, the Township Supervisor of each township within the county meet together as the County Board of Supervisors. The last meeting of the County Court took place on April 6th, 1850. At the Tremont County Courthouse on May 6th, 1850, the first meeting of the County Board of Supervisors took place with the following membership: R.W. Briggs, Tremont Township; William S. Maus, Pekin Township; W.J. Thompson, Jefferson Township; R.N. Cullom, Deer Creek Township; B.F. Orendorff, Little Mackinaw Township; W.W. Crossman, Delavan Township; Seth Talbot, Elm Grove Township; C.J. Gibson, Fond du Lac Township; George L. Parker, Groveland Township; Samuel P. Bailey, Cincinnati Township; Nathan Dillon, Dillon Township; Lyman Porter, Mackinaw Township; Horace Clark, Morton Township; Charles Holder, Highland Township; Hezekiah Armington, Union Township; and George H. Daniels, Spring Lake Township. Honorable Richard N. Cullom of Deer Creek was chosen the first County Chairman.

A county jail was built by the Board of Supervisors of Tazewell County, in 1952, at a cost of $7,000. By December 13th 1960, the first action was taken on the new Tazewell County Administration Building and Jail, which today is known as the McKenzie Building. Motion was made by Supervisor Harry Condon of Pekin, seconded by Supervisor Albert Schilling of Pekin, and then moved that the Chairman approve a Special Committee of ten Board Members to make further study for a new Administration Building and Jail. Chairman Clem McKenzie appointed the following members: James Von Boeckman, Roy H. Lowry, William Waldmeier, David H. Snell, Leo F. Matthews, Harry Condon, Clyde E. Reed, Homer Hild, Erwin W. Hersemann, and August Hoffman. Such appointments were approved by the Board of Supervisors.

The new Tazewell County Administration Building and Jail was constructed in 4 phases with construction beginning in December of 1961 and the fourth phase was completed in 1975. Phase one totaling $257,928 was approved by the Board of Supervisors on December 13th, 1961. Date of the official opening of the new Tazewell County Administration Building and Jail by the late Sheriff George H. Sweeter, was May 7, 1963. Entire Sheriff's personnel and prisoners occupied the new building. On July 10th, 1963, the Special Building Committee received bids for the demolition of the old jail.

Phase two began in June of 1963 and totaled $456,338.49. Phase three of the new Tazewell County Administration Building and Jail was approved on December 16th, 1964, by the Tazewell County Board of Supervisors totaling $138,491. The following County Offices moved from the Court House to the new Tazewell County Administration Building and Jail during 1965 and 1966: County Auditor, Superintendent of Educational Service Region, County Superintendent of Highways, County Clerk, Voters Registration, County Coroner, County Zoning, and the meeting room for the Board of Supervisors of the County.

At the County Board meeting held on October 15th, 1969, a resolution was passed to name the new Tazewell County Administration Building and Jail the McKenzie Building to honor the late Board Member, Clarence (Clem) McKenzie of Fond du Lac Township.

The Township format of government would remain until 1972, when the first Tazewell County Board Members were independently elected. Tazewell County was divided into 3 Tazewell County Board Districts. Albert E. Schilling was elected Tazewell County Chairman. The first independently elected Tazewell County Board Members were:

The bids for the fourth phase were approved on October 17th, 1973, by the Tazewell County Board, totaling $183,560. The following offices moved in January 1975: Board of Review, Director of Court Services, Adult Probation Office, and the Supervisor of Assessments.

In March and November of 1998, the Tazewell County Board placed on the ballot Public Sales Safety Tax increases to fund the construction of a new Tazewell County Justice Center. Both times the ballot question failed. In November of 2000, the County Board once again presented the question on the ballot and this time it passed. Groundbreaking for the new Tazewell County Justice Center took place January 7th, 2002. Total cost for new Tazewell County Justice Center was $15,035,607. The Tazewell County Justice Center was dedicated on September 26th, 2003.

The McKenzie Building underwent a remodeling in 2003 following the construction of the Tazewell County Justice Center and movement of the Sheriff's personnel and prisoners to that facility. The remodeling of the former jail space allowed the Recorder of Deeds, County Treasurer, and County Board Offices to move back into the building following decades in other downtown Pekin buildings.

CORONER

The Tazewell County Coroner is mandated by Statute to investigate the cause and manner of death of any dead body within the borders of the county when the circumstances of the death indicate any of the following:

- A sudden or violent death, whether apparently suicidal, homicidal, or accidental.
 - Any death due to a sex crime or a crime against nature including criminal or self-induced abortions and stillborn infants where there is a suspicion of illegal interference.
- A death where the circumstances are suspicious, obscure, mysterious or otherwise unexplained.
 - A death where addiction to alcohol or to any drug may have been a contributory cause.
 - A death where the decedent was not attended by a licensed physician within the past 72-hours of death occurs within 24 hours of admission to a hospital (unless the patient has been under continuous care of a physician for a natural disease which is responsible for death).
 - A death on the operating table or prior to recovery from anesthesia.
 - All deaths in a State institution.
 - All deaths of wards of the State in a private care facility or in programs funded by the Department of Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities, the Illinois Department of Alcoholism and Substances Abuse, or the Department of children and Family Services.
 - All deaths arising from employment including industrial poisonings from custody of any law enforcement agency.
 - Any death of a fireman who dies within 30 days of working a fire.
 - All deaths arising from employment including industrial poisoning from absorption and /or inhalation.
 - All hospice deaths.
 - All human skeletal remains including bones and decomposed fleshy parts of a deceased human body including grave artifacts.

During a death investigation, it may be the duty and responsibility of the Coroner to cause an autopsy to be performed, including the taking of X-rays and the performance of other medical tests, toxicology tests, and positive body identification as the Coroner deems appropriate.

Special attention is given by the Coroner's office to the family of the deceased in keeping them informed during their grieving process. This care, concern and compassion is also exhibited by the Coroner in providing the option of tissue, organ, or body donation (in those deaths meeting the donation criteria) and in providing special reports in all Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) cases.

The Coroner takes charge of any valuable personal property, money, or papers found upon or near the body which is the subject of a Coroner's investigation and delivers the same to those entitled to its care or possession. After the inquisition, the Coroner releases the body to family or friends for burial. If no next of kin or friends exist, the Coroner shall cause the body to be decently buried or cremated, the expenses paid by the County.

All cases coming under investigation prior to the filing of a permanent Death Certificate must be resolved as to the manner of death. This may occur in two ways.

First, by holding a Jury Inquest of six individuals that would hear testimony and form a verdict according to the evidence presented. This takes place in a public venue. This system has several shortcomings. The public access allows the family of the victim to suffer the reliving of the event. In cases such as suicide this becomes overwhelming. Also the verdict so reached can never be overturned regardless of any new evidence that may appear because of new scientific techniques.

The second approach made law in 2007 provides that the Coroner after investigating all evidence can reach a verdict on the manner of death without inquest. This can be kept Private for the families and is reversible should anything new develop in the case. The vast majority of all cases in Tazewell County are resolved this way.

In any death where the remains are to be cremated, it shall be the duty of the funeral director to obtain from the Coroner a permit to cremate a body. The Coroner, prior to the issuing of the permit, shall complete his investigation of the cause and circumstances of the death. No crematory shall cremate a dead human body unless a Coroner's permit to cremate has been furnished to authorize the cremation.

COUNTY CLERK / RECORDER

The County Clerk is the official principally responsible for the general administration work of the county. It is the County Clerk's duty: 1) to keep all documents and records relating to the business of the County Board; 2) to co-sign all checks in payment of bills (after they have been approved by the County Board); 3) to give to any person who pays the required fee a copy of any record, paper, or account in his office. He keeps records of the births and deaths in the county, and issues marriage licenses. The County Clerk also performs various duties relating to elections. He must supervise the printing of ballots for primary and general elections and, with officials of the various political parties, he canvasses or keeps a tally of the election returns. In addition, the County Clerk is in charge of voter's registration in all parts of the county. The County Clerk processes Payroll for all County employees.

The County Clerk has an important role in the assessment of the local property taxes. The County Clerk prepares a list of the taxable property in the county, along with the name of the owner and the legal description of the property, and delivers this list to the Supervisor of Assessments. The County Clerk receives various request for funds from townships, school districts, park districts, and all of the other governmental units in the county, as well as the county request. The County Clerk totals these request and, by dividing the total requested by the total assessed valuations, gets the tax rate or levy that must be applied to the property to obtain the money requested. The County Clerk finally turns this information over to the Treasurer who issues the Property Tax Bills. The County Clerk is responsible for resolving delinquent property taxes.

As Recorder of Deeds, the County Clerk's primary duty is to make and to preserve a public record of the various legal documents (such as deeds, mortgages, and leases) that affect the title to land. The Recorder of Deeds also records or files other important documents such as the articles of incorporation of Illinois Corporations, and the bill of sale when goods - especially appliances - are sold on the installation plan. Military Discharge papers are also recorded with the Recorder of Deeds.

PUBLIC DEFENDER

The Public Defender's Office was formally created by statute of the Illinois General Assembly to satisfy a constitutional right. That constitutional right is set forth within the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution under the Sixth Amendment. The Amendment, as interpreted by the U.S. Supreme Court and the Courts of Illinois, provides that any person charged with a criminal offense for which incarceration is a possibility is entitled to the services of an attorney to represent him or her. If he or she cannot afford to employ an attorney, the State has a legal duty to provide an attorney to the indigent person.

Tazewell County Cities and Villages, Townships and School Boards

Tazewell County Township History

Fondulac Township was the first to have the boundaries fixed. The name was picked by the citizens in an election. The original spelling of the township was Fon du Lac, changing at some point to Fondulac Township today. The first election under township organization was held at Farm Creek Schoolhouse. The Village of Fondulac was founded on June 20, 1855, Village of Bluetown on April 1, 1864, and Village of Hilton on July 1st, 1884. In 1889 the Village of Fondulac, Village of Bluetown, and Village of Hilton merged to form the City of East Peoria.

Washington Township was named because of the village and post office bore that name. The first election was held in the district school building at Washington. W.M. Holland was the first settler about 1820/1821. The Village of Washington was founded on March 4th, 1834, and on March 2nd, 1878, changed to the City of Washington.

Deer Creek Township was named by Major R.N. Cullom, taking the name of the creek that flows through it. The first election was held at the Monmouth Schoolhouse. The Village of Deer Creek was incorporated on September 26th, 1899.

Morton Township was named by Harvey Campbell in honor of Governor Morton of Massachusetts. First election was held at W.W. Campbell's. Mr Soward was the first settler of Morton Township about 1826/1827, followed by Mr Field, Richard Ratliff, Uriah Crosby, John M. Roberts and his four sons. Uriah Crosby and Charles Crandall established the first school in 1832 to entice more settlers to the area. The Village of Morton was founded on November 12th, 1850.

Groveland Township took the name of the village. The first election was held at the Randolph House. James Scott was the first settler in 1827. The Village of Groveland was founded on May 30th, 1836.

Pekin Township was named after the City of Pekin. Pekin, originally called "Town Site", was settled by Jonathon Tharp in 1828. The village was located on high ground along present day Broadway Street near historic Franklin School. In 1829, Major Cromwell's wife was given the honor of naming the settlement, selecting Pekin. A large Pottawatomie Native American settlement was nearby to the north. The first "store" was opened by Absalom Dillon in 1828. The first brick church in Tazewell County, a Methodist church, was built in Pekin in 1830. The City of Pekin served as the Tazewell County Seat from June 1st, 1831, to May 9th, 1836, and then again from November 11th, 1850, to the present.

Cincinnati Township held their first election at the Cincinnati Hotel in Pekin. Major Perkins, Elisha Perkins, William Woodrow, Hugh Woodrow, Samuel Woodrow, and John Summers settled the township in 1826. The first schoolhouse was built at the Summers and Woodrow settlement around 1828. The birth of the City of Pekin, Jonathon Tharp's homestead, is located within Cincinnati Township rather than Pekin Township. The Village of South Pekin was founded on July 10th, 1913.

Elm Grove Township held their first election at Elm Grove Schoolhouse. John Dillon was the first settler in 1823. The first schoolhouse was built in 1826 by Jesse Dillon and the Quakers established the first church in the township in the same year.

Tremont Township held their first election at the Tazewell County Court House at Tremont. James Chapman was the first settler in 1830. Auburn was the first town founded prior to 1834 just to the north of present day Village of Tremont, but was abandoned following the settlement by the Tremont colony from New York in 1834. The Village of Tremont served as the Tazewell County Seat from May 9th, 1836, to November 11th, 1850.

Mackinaw Township held their first election at the Schoolhouse in the town of Mackinaw. The name came from the Native American name of the river that flows through Tazewell County. A large Kickapoo Native American settlement was located near what today is the Village of Mackinaw area prior to the 1830's. The first settlement was by A. Smith in 1827. The Village of Mackinaw was founded on May 26th, 1828. Silas Curtis opened the first school in 1830. The Village of Mackinaw served as the Tazewell County Seat from 1827 to June 1st, 1831. The Village of Lilly was founded on January 21st, 1871.

Little Mackinaw Township held their first election at a schoolhouse on the Little Mackinaw Creek. The first settlers were John and Samuel Stout. Thomas F. Railsback established the first school in 1830. The Village of Minier was founded in 1867.

Hopedale Township was originally named Highland Township. A portion of Boynton Township was originally attached. The first election was held at Mrs. Purviance's residence. The name Highland was changed because there was another township in the State of Illinois with that name. Aaron Orendorff was the first settler in 1827. The first gathering of the Tazewell County Government took place at William Orendorff's homestead just north of current Village of Hopedale on April 10th, 1827. Aaron Orendorff established the first school in 1832. The Village of Hopedale was originally named Osceola in 1853, but when they went to establish a Post Office it was discovered another town was already named Osceola in Illinois. As a result, the name was changed to the Village of Hopedale on February 22nd, 1869.

Dillon Township held their first election at the schoolhouse in Dillon. The first settler was Nathan Dillon in 1823. The first schoolhouse was established in 1833. The Village of Dillon, originally named the Village of Liberty, was founded on June 18th, 1836.

Sand Prairie Township was originally named Jefferson Township. The first election was held at John Hisle's residence. Malone Township was originally attached to Sand Prairie Township. The first settlers were Elisha and Major Perkins in 1822. Mrs. Sarah Hinkle established the first schoolhouse in 1827. The Village of Circleville was founded on August 7th, 1837. The Village of Green Valley was founded on October 19th, 1872.

Spring Lake Township held their first election at Charles Seewell's residence. The first settlement was by Joseph Offutt in 1839. The first schoolhouse was established in 1849 by Daniel Hawkins. The first church was not built until 1856 by the Dutch Reform Society. The Village of Spring Lake was founded on May 15th, 1852.

Delavan Township originally included part of current Boynton Township. Jonas R. Gale was impressed with the land while traveling to Dillon in 1836 and organized the Delavan Colony from Providence, Rhode Island. The Village of Delavan was founded on February 1st, 1841, and then as the City of Delavan in 1888.

Hittle Township was first named Union Township, then changed to Waterford Township, then to Armington Township, and finally to Hittle Township throughout 1850. The original township included part of current Boynton Township. First election was held at Hittle Grove Church. It was first settled by George Hittle, Jonas Hittle, and John W. Judy in 1826. Mr. Ewing established the first schoolhouse in 1827. The Village of Armington was founded on August 7th, 1855.

Boynton Township was later organized in 1854. The township was named in honor of an Eastern gentleman of that name. The first election was held at the James Huston residence. The first settler was Joe Grant in 1839. The first schoolhouse was established in 1854 by Philip B. Ware.

Malone Township was the last township of Tazewell County to receive its first settler in 1850; Silas Dowd, Eber Pugh, James McCoy, James Wilson, John Wilson, Dr. Hubbard Latham, William P. Latham, Joseph Watts, and William Boyer. The township was organized in 1854.
